

Dance With Me

Ingrid Michaelson

Dance with me

In the rain or in the sunshine

Dance with me

I'll be yours if you'll be all mine

You may not believe it but I know it to be true

That I'm happy ever after

Happy ever after

When I get to dance

With you

Hey, Fin, who was that girl in the blue dress

Allison Nelson, good luck. Girls like that dry their hands with dollar bills

Dance with me

Put your arms around me, honey

Dance with me

I don't care if we look funny

Perfect imperfection

That's the way we make it through

I'm happy ever after

Happy ever after

When I get to dance with you

Who was that boy with the tiny guitar?

Noah Calhoun, he works in the lumber yard. No

When the world's not looking

Can I steal a kiss or two

Make me happy ever after

Just ask me to dance with you
