

Do It Now

Ingrid Michaelson

Sitting in the back of the bus
Talking about nothing, oh we're talking about us Watching as the world goes hammering on Hammering on

You say that you've got nothing left There's nothing left in you to find You're gonna ride it out gonna wait it out Living to die, you're living to die

No one's gonna wait for you
No one's gonna wait for you

So do it now
Do it right now
Don't waste a minute
on the darkness and the pity sitting in your mind and
Do it right now
Do it right now

Everything will stop on a dime Everything will crash into itself in good time
Do you want to beat your own heart beat your own heart Or leave it behind Leave it behind

No one's gonna wait for you
No one's gonna wait for you

So do it now
Do it right now
Don't waste a minute
sitting in your mind and
Do it right now
Do it right now

I'm gonna get up
I'm gonna get right out of my bed, get out of my bed
You're gonna stand up,
you're gonna stand right up again stand right up again
I'm gonna get up
I'm gonna get out of my bed, get out of my head
You're gonna stand up,
you're gonna stand up
You're gonna stand up

So do it now
Do it right now

Do it right now
