

Grow Up

Ingrid Michaelson

Grow up
I keep waiting for you to
Grow up
I'm getting old waiting for you
To show up
Why do I wait

There's no in between with you and me
Only black or white, no never green
I keep waiting for it all to seem
Like a dream that I'll wake up from one day
But still I stay

Waiting for you to grow up
Waiting for you to grow up
I keep waiting for you to show up
Why do I wait

There's no in between with you and me
Only black or white no, never green
I keep waiting for this all to seem
Like a dream that I'll wake up from one day
But still I pray

For you to grow up
Maybe one day you'll grow up
Maybe one day you'll show me
How grown up you got
