Open Hands

Ingrid Michaelson

Nobody wants to be the only one that's left standing Nobody wants to be the only one to understand And now I'm seeing the way that you're leaving without me

Now go on and drift away The tide can hold you out Go quiet now Go sound go safe Open hands are hard to hold onto anyway Anyway

Everybody wants the one to make them live forever And nobody wants to be the only one to say they can't And now I'm seeing the way that you're leaving without me

Now go on and drift away The tide can hold you out Go quiet now Go sound go safe Open hands are hard to hold onto anyway Anyway Anyway Anyway
