

Hellbound

Ingrown

Institutionalized
Within my mind
Guilt and regrets
Stacked up high enough
To keep me trapped inside
Endless are the times
That make me wonder if
I will survive

Time and time again
Reminded of when
I lost it all
I see another way
Proving this to be
The final call

Forced to fend alone
Then lift myself back up
From lower than I ever thought I'd fall

Hollow feelings of cold
Growing deep inside
Warning signs prove that
I have started to die

Watch your life fall apart
As it all drags you to the ground
Everything you wished would have stayed the same
Slowly turns on you in great disdain
