

Billy (Yeah Yeah Yeah)

Inhaler

Billy, Billy, Billy, Billy
Billy, Billy, Billy, Billy

Is this just lust we feel?
If so, I'm grateful
I lived in fear of being bored
So, you leave me no choice
Let's make the same mistake twice
Let's not take our own advice
This is what we've got
I'm terrified, you're not

Billy, his eyes are like headlights
Can't see in the window
Of his fast car
She's the stoplight
Not turning red or green yeah
She's gold and she's honest
Don't justify the reason
Don't lie for a promise

Yeah, yeah, yeah
If I come a little too close, should I back away?
Should I have listened to the things you used to say?
If I come a little too close, and nothing changed
(Billy, Billy, Billy)
Ah, yeah, yeah, yeah
If I come a little too close, should I walk away?
Something I could never gain
But in this I am
All in, all in, all in
All this I'm certain of
I'm all in, all in
All this I'm certain of

Get out of mornings reflections
I long to know your mother and sister and brother
I'll justify the reason
For solving the problem
Here but you're much further
Than I was now hoping
Billy would be last to be furthest
Not throwing out the need to be honest

Yeah, yeah, yeah
If I come a little too close, should I back away?
Should I have listened to the things you used to say?
Gave a little too much
And nothing changed
(Billy, Billy, Billy)
Yeah, yeah, yeah
If I come a little too close, should I walk away?
Something I could never gain
But in this I am
All in, all in, all in

I'm all in, all in

I'm a little too close
I might back away
Should I have listened to the things you used to say?
Oh and nothing changed

Yeah, yeah, yeah
If I come a little too close, should I walk away?
Something I could never gain
But in this I am
All in, all in, all in
All this I'm certain of
All in, all in
Yeah, yeah, yeah

I'm a little too close
I'm a little too close
Something I could never change
Yeah, yeah, yeah
I'm a little too close
I'm a little too close
I'm all in, all in
