

Perfect Storm

Inhaler

In a different time, in a different space
I still want you in my head, still want you in my face
When we don't get on, when we get it wrong
To you, I'll say

There's something in the room with us tonight
Something in the way you roll your eyes
Night is just as cold as day is warm
Jump into the waves in your perfect storm

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh

As advertised, avacancy to play the part
Was something wrong right from the start?
And do not touch if you've not bought
There's something in the house
I hear noises in the walls
Yeah, phone the exorcist
Wake me when he calls
There's something

So why are we trying to kill
Something that's been so good?
I can't explain it now
So wait

There's something in the room with us tonight
It's caught between the dawn and morning light
Something that you said that drove it home
Left me underneath in your perfect storm
Something that you said that changed the tide
Tangled in the weight of our own lies
Is everything we had as good as gone?
Lying in the wreck of your perfect storm

Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
Oh, oh, oh, oh
