Tell me what does she have that I don't have
Tell me what can I say that I haven't said
Tell me what does she have that I don't have
Why can't I give you all I have baby
I'd give you all I have

Patiently I've waited
For you to end up one relationship
Before I knew it
You were riding towards someone not me
And I can not tell you
What I felt and what you did to me
But I can assure you
There could never be another me

Tell me what does she have that I don't have
Tell me what can I say that I haven't said
Tell me what does she have that I don't have
Why can't I give you all I have baby
I'd give you all I have

Dangerously faded from my life
From my reality
But still I waited
Maybe there's another chance for me
Did I ever hurt you
That you would wanna do the same to me
So I gotte leave you
With your new better love apparently

Tell me what does she have that I don't have
Tell me what can I say that I haven't said
Tell me what does she have that I don't have
Why can't I give you all I have baby
I'd give you all I have

I thought that we could be together
Hold each there
But no matter what I did or what I wanted
You would always find another
So take your time with your new lover
She can have you all together
And I would go on to remember
How we could have had forever

Tell me what does she have that I don't have
Tell me what can I say that I haven't said
Tell me what does she have that I don't have
Why can't I give you all I have baby

I'd give you all I have...
