

Kingdom

Iniko

Alone
There's nothing but quiet
Only silent
In these extremes

He's gone
The lion
I'm nothing but a fighter
I've got my wings

It's getting closer now
I'm looking for my way out
When I take my crown
Ain't nothing stopping me now

Take me home
I'm looking for my kingdom
I'm searching for my freedom
Please grant me wisdom, oh

So I can go home
I'm looking for answers
See, I am the master
Oh, just take me home
Take me home
Home, home
(Ah, ah)

I picked the hammer up and I started nailing
Every single fucking thing I'm trailblazing
I'm done wallowing
I'm not swallowing
My pride, I glide and try with all my might
And God I know that I can fly
I know the fire's in my eyes
I think that now I see the light
Oh, I think that now I see the light

It's getting closer now
I'm looking for my way out
When I take my crown
Ain't nothing stopping me now

Take me home
I'm looking for my kingdom
I'm searching for my freedom
Oh, please grant me wisdom

So I can go home
Done searching for our answers
See, I am the master
Oh, please take me home
Take me home
Home
