

Rain

Iniko

Cover me with your love

Lately, I've been feeling feelings, yeah, you got me feeling some type of way

I am not looking for healing from you, that's a journey that I must take

But the truth I've been seeking, I found it in you, and it's grounded in reality

Oh, you can see me with a blindfold on

Swept up in the current, and it ain't too strong

So let your love cover me like rain, oh

Drowning in your waters my pain, oh

Swimming in a river of the things you do

Floating in your oceans, so beautiful

So let your love follow me like rainstorms

Drowning in your waters my pain, oh

Cover me with your love

Cover me in your love

Cover me with your love

The ocean's a portal, so I really can't be surprised

You transport me every time

Fluid like a water sign

Offering like an ought to cry

Pain comes, but I will not feel it

There are secrets, I won't reveal it

But you give 'em up all the bite and dice

Just give it one plus nine, nine

So let your love cover me like rain, oh

Drowning in your waters my pain, oh

Swimming in a river of the things you do

Floating in your oceans, so beautiful

So let your love follow me like rainstorms

Drowning in your waters my pain, oh

Cover me with your love

Cover me in your love

Cover me with your love

Oh, won't you cover me, baby

Can't you cover me, baby

Oh, won't you cover me, baby

Oh, won't you cover me, baby

You need to cover me, baby

You got to cover me, baby

You need to cover me, baby

You need to cover me, baby

Cover me day and night

Cover me, baby

Cover me

Cover your love

Cover your love

Cover me with your love
