

Satellite

Iniko

Satellite can't reach me
Where I'm is not a place, it's a feeling
And my mind is in a state of healing
My worth is not attached to what I do, it's in the frequency (frequency)
It's in the latency (latency)
But I've been losing me, to artificial tendency, (oh, oh)
I am not a woman, I'm a problem
The jump I make gon' have to be quantum
I'm the fucking one, I'm not an option
Heart gone cold I've been frostbit
No matter what I do they still gon talk shit
Back up in the stew, making concoctions
Obey ya in my blood bitch I'm haunted, (hmm)

Don't need no spotlight in the dark
I'ma still shine bright
Aliens unite, beam me up
I'm about to take flight
Don't need no spotlight in the dark
I'ma still shine bright
Aliens unite, beam me up
I'm about to take flight

Every time I fall down I get back up again
And I need don't know, who's they're up against Can't box me in, I'm jumping every fence
I'm here right now not in the past
That's what I've got a muted game that's just my actions
The fruit I bury is made of passion
Ride of a liar strides of samsung
And my king can't shit, I'm running rapid
Never lying, never complying all these powers at bay
To treat me like a human being
I'm raging against my shee
And I see through the smoke screen
I stand for the unseen
It came to me in a dream
It was a nightmare, there was an explosion and I'm right there
We never go in, if we fight fair
To my alien family take care
