

Yosemite (Song For The Ahwahnechee)

Iniko

Do do do do do do do
(Do do do do do do do)
La la laa
(La la laa)
Oh oh ohh
(Oh oh ohh)
Ahh

Only I know who I am
I am not woman or man
Protector of water and land
A voice of the meek and the damned
I rally all who are chosen
Who don't let society hold them
Asylum for the hurt and the broken
Precious metal, I am golden
Of the moon and the sun
Where I'm from is outside of the matrix (yeah)
It has begun, revolution! We gotta say this (Yeah) I don't need faith because I see, because I feel this
I don't believe because I know I am the seed

Call it what you want
Call it what you need
There's a shift, there's a glitch in this reality
Now it's up to us, now it's up to me to invoke
What was spoken through the air that we breathe
Call it what you want
Call it what you need
There's a shift, there's a glitch in this reality
Now it's up to us - now it's up to me - to invoke
What was spoken through the air that we breathe

Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh
Oh oh oh oh

Ooh ah ooh ah
Ooh ah ooh ah ooh ah oh
Ooh ah ooh ah
Ooh ah ooh ah ooh ah ohh ohhh

A voice of the meek and the damned
Precious metal; I am golden
Don't let society hold them

Call it what you want
Call it what you need
There's a shift, there's a glitch in this reality
Now it's up to us, now it's up to me to invoke
What was spoken through the air that we breathe
Call it what you want
Now it's up to us - now it's up to me - to invoke
What was spoken through the air that we breathe

(Ah oh ah ohh
Ah ah ohhh
Ah ih ah oh
Ah ah ohh)
