Nothing Stays the Same

Injected

Woke up on your floor, dirty sink from the night before
There's this taste I can't ignore, getting bored with it
I think it's time to, throw it away and head for home
God, I know, you've said, it leaves me so alone, left floating on my own

Hey, nothing stays the same (round here anyway)
So, if you cut it loose, it might come back someday
Set it ablaze, we'll watch it fade away, yeah-ha-hey
So if you cut me loose, I might come back someday

Choking on that trip, from your dirty black fingertips
And the truth, it escapes your lips, when you get bored with it
I think it's time to, throw it away and head for home
God, I know, you've said, it leaves me so alone, left floating on my own

Hey, nothing stays the same (round here anyway)
So, if you cut it loose, it might come back someday
Set it ablaze, we'll watch it fade away, yeah-ha-hey
So if you cut me loose, I might come back someday

Flying a million on your own
God, I know, I've said, it leaves me so alone
Well, it's time you head back home

Hey, nothing stays the same (round here anyway)
So, if you cut it loose, it might come back someday
Set it ablaze, we'll watch it fade away, yeah-ha-hey
So if you cut me loose, I might come back someday

So if you cut it loose, yeah
Can you cut it loose, yeah
Can you cut me loose, yeah
Just cut it loose, yeah
