

Suffocate

Injected

Hit like a ton
But I'm still aware
Now it's known
So a beautiful one
Lets you come undone
You're still alone
Find your one way
To have your say
Truth obscured and I'm victimized
Not alone

Can't help but quit
I need a respite from the pain I hold so dear
Been here before; cold dead, cold floor
For some reason, I show no fear

I will choke on my sadness
Until I will suffocate
And I'll try to find an outlet
But how long can my soul wait?
Throughout all the reasons
That change with the lies
That help you through the days
Until you realize
It's just sadness without direction
Suffocate

I'm not the kind
Who would pull on the ties that bind
It's like grains of sand
What I can't feel in my heart, I crush with my hands

Can't help but quit
I need a respite from the pain I hold so dear
Been here before; cold dead, cold floor
For some reason, I show no fear

I will choke on my sadness
Until I will suffocate
And I'll try to find an outlet
But how long can my soul wait?
Throughout all the reasons
That change with the lies
That help you through the days
Until you realize
It's just sadness without direction
Suffocate

I will choke on my sadness
Until I will suffocate
And I'll try to find an outlet
But how long can my soul wait?
Throughout all the reasons
That change with the lies
Until you realize
