

The Truth About You

Injected

Oh, you're such a mess to me
You're my tolerant enemy
You're my love how I adore
I don't want you anymore

It's alright, ok
You're always gonna get your way
It's alright, hello
Long as you find yourself a ride home

Cause that's just one thing that I can't do
Tell myself the truth about you

The truth, the truth, the truth about you
I lie to myself cause I know it's not true
Can't stare at you so I stare at my shoes
Just can't seem to stare at the truth
I close my eyes and I know what to do
I didn't see nothing but the truth

Need to close your bathroom stall
You know there's no problem at all
I see four feet on the floor
Two eyes ahead, I know the score

It's alright, ok
You're always gonna get your way
But it's alright, hello
Long as you find yourself a ride home

Cause that's just one thing that I can't do
Just one thing that I can't do
There's one thing that I can't do
Is tell myself the truth about you
Yeah!
