It's good to be home bumping Good to Be Home and my True Blues too new Yeah it's good to be on, on yeah I'm on the clock
Cause these raps haven't done shit but buy me a couple socks
And those get holey eventually, holy guacamole
I'm supposed to be the recipe or the key ingredient to what makes this shit deadly potent
Yeah your flow kid, is pretty much dead to me
And we back with another one, like I'm making a Tracy McGrady jersey
Yo, uh c'mon, yo, on the Rockets and you know I can't stop it
Bridges been rocking with flows that make fossils, c'mon
Yo, full throttle, but no, no speed wobble
I came with four bottles and left with three models, c'mon
Yo, bottles of water cause you know I ain't sippin'
Three new kicks, cause you know I ain't Pippen
Wassup

Yo!

Yo!

Yo!

Yo!

Fuck these niggas and their lame brands, all I rock is Vans shit and TVTs
I swear even when we on, I'm still going to have my girl buying groceries at EBT
Like ODB, I told you I'm addicted to this shit, I'm about to OD, P
But, fuck it, feed the addiction, Nate and Parker don't drink
So you best believe that I'm sippin' for three Killing everyone who thinks they killing it
On my Dexter shit
I'm just rapping about my life, bruh
Fuck all that extra shit
"Why you so mad, Step, what's up with the all expletives?"
Well I started drinking again, plus I'm hella lit
But back to the extra shit
Like this world's just moving in the background, and I'm the star of this fl ick
I'm just hoping all of my verses stay as hard as my dick Never settle in life, Jack, this ain't as good as it gets
'Fore I wasn't good enough, I guess this take five Fuegas vs. the world homie, yeah, you better take sides
Like you order the value meal and got bullied for your fries
It be easy to make ignorant music that threatens lives
Never been the type to preach, man that ain't cool
Life's a chess game you better calculate your moves
I truly recommend you don't step to my groove
It'll be extremely painful, for you!

I like the way you move
I like the way you vibe
I like the way you move
Do you have the time?

I like the way you move
I like the way you vibe
I like the way you move
No, no for real, does like, anyone have the time?

Yo!
