Decaying Beauty

Inkubus Sukkubus

Flesh of my flesh, Bone of my bone A body is merely A shell for the soul

Colours changing, body fading Flesh and blood and bone decaying Stumbling, falling, limbs now failing Not much more from life remaining Weaker now, I feel us slipping Youth and beauty fade from view Steady me, my fingers gripping Hold me while I fall to you

Hold me closer What is happening to us? Hold me closer Can't lose you again

See your flesh, it's growing thinner See your bones, they're shining through See your teeth in lipless grin And see the fear I feel for you

Hold me closer How I love you dearly Hold me closer Love will never die Hold me closer You must never fear me Hold me closer We're one, you and I

Flesh to flesh, I need you near me Bodies fail, but love remains Bone to bone, I see so clearly With our love we're still the same
