

The Dark Prince

Inkubus Sukkubus

Once again, back from the dead
The dark prince
Once more, the monster's kiss
The virgin in white, shall be defiled
Throughout the night
And she will be reborn in death

Swept away in the madness of desire
Lost again in the romance of the night

Once more the beast will take her
On the silken sheets
Once more the fangs and heaving breasts
The angel of love is now stained with her blood
And the young men cut him down

Dragged away with the erotic and the dead
Throughout the storm, the thunder and the pain
