

Kindred: For All One Knows

InMe

I've found inner pieces of mind.
I've left my future behind.
I allow my darkness to shine.
Lost time.

Maybe, oh just maybe, oh maybe you might come back to me.
Maybe, oh just maybe you'll fall back in my arms again.

Hopeless romanticised poison.
Reflecting sunken eyes of what once was a person.
Immersion.

If you remain I swear I'll stay the same.
And if you can't stay I'll beg to you I'll change in vain again
& again.

This is not what I wanted but it's what I deserve.
I'm living the lie that I learned.
We're always giving up on it.
I'm so full of shit.
I couldn't admit I can't quit.

You live on in ice cold dreams.
Waking in frozen sweat.
I guess I now know what you meant.
Come back to me.
You will come back to me eventually won't you?
These lies are all true.

For all one knows.
For all one shows.
For all one chose.
