

May(as Well Kiss Me)

InMe

She walks over to me
And talks to my ear like I'm worth it
And I'm crazy
She follows me around
And I think I made a big mistake
And now I can't sleep
Because I am trapped inside my head
I don't want to be alone

And I'm all about you
Because I miss you
I need your love
I'm bleeding for you
I am a wreck

And now I'm a drunk again
Escaping sobriety's demons
Because they bore me
I know it's all of my fault
The princess's eyes meet my liar's eyes
And I 'm content
Because I just need to be with you
Angels bowing down to you

And I'm all about you
Because I miss you
I need your love
I'm bleeding for you
I am a wreck

I need you here with me
It's empty without you here
I feel isolated, frustrated
And I will see you again
I cut myself again
I deserve all the pain
Help me and I'm trying
Dreams and reality conflict
And I'm in the middle
May I kiss you?
Because I remember how you feel
I feel warm when you are near

And I'm all about you
Because I miss you
I need your love
I'm bleeding for you
I am a wreck

I miss you
Yes I miss you
I need your love
I'm screaming, bleeding for you
I am a wreck
