

Rapture: Land Of The Secret Rose

InMe

Stole my heart & drenched it with sunlight.
The river flows as rain falls through the night.
Words & music cannot describe how this land makes me feel so alive, electric.

Stole my heart & smothered it with hope.
Took my worries & covered them in cope.
Poetry & photographs cannot do justice for my love for you.

The land of the secret rose silently whispers her prose.
She is my sweet escape when night falls & my shadow grows.
A mime of majesty, she offers love in tragedy.
She is my home, my heart, my oldest fondest memory.

Hold me in the flames 'til the fire burns.
Oh I'm sleeping in ecstasy.
Time can never change what remains the same.
Bleeding smiles.

Hidden haven shrouded by the trees.
Rays of light come pouring through the leaves.
