

Alright

Inner Circle

Alright
Everything is gonna be alright
nuh worry 'bout a 'ting
it's gonna be fine

Music so sweet
And to sound is so right
It makes you forget
All of life's problems

I want you to smile cause you got Love on you my mind
You had it all the time
Cause love is no crime

They may take a life
Try to take a soul
But on thing I know

That they can't take the Ark of the Covenant
No matter how hard times may seem Just keep smiling cause you've Got the proof in your heart.
