

All In Vain

Inner Wave

What's that you're saying to me
I can't believe how hard you're to please
It's the cycles baby, driving me insane
We're in circles now for far too long

Now I'm moving on, yeah I need a change
I've had enough, now I'm switching lanes
Cause I'm dancing alone, alone in the rain
Wasting my time yeah it was all in vain
It was all in vain

(I can't wait
I can't wait
I can't wait
I can't wait)

That stuff you said to me today
Kept it in mind for far too long
The sweet love and tenderness
Evolved in us was such a mess
I realized I wanted out before

Now I'm moving on, yeah I need a change
I've had enough, now I'm switching lanes
Cause I'm dancing alone, alone in the rain
Wasting my time, yeah it was all in vain

I can't wait forever
I can't wait for better
I can't wait for you to change

I can't wait forever
I can't wait for better
I can't wait for you to change

It was all in vain
