Inner Wave

Wait what are you doing
Tell me your secrets
I will not hold them against you
Didn't they raise you
Better than this
Oh shit is it over?
U missed The point again
Depending on your friends
Trying To make sense
Why are you angry
I thought you had me
Oh but
Nothing's as it seems
I swear picture it in
Time to break the spell
Oh hell
Witches calling

Now that you're older I think you should try it
I know that you feel you are so good at hiding
I'm here to warn you it's time to grow up
And if you don't evolve you're bound to erupt

You mentioned to me you wanna be someplace where things don't grow

Make something special the timing is clear it won't last forever cause nothing is real
Nothing to feel I don't want to change
Keep it the same

Go forth my child into the daylight
Nothings as it seems
Not anymore
