Inner Wave

They say good comes to those who wait
Well I've been waiting, waiting, waiting, waiting, way too long
I refuse just to let it break cause I've been watching you fall apart for way too long
And it's no surprise I have thoughts that'll make you shake
I scare myself when I lose my sleep
I start to wander in the middle of the dead night

I've been holding out
I've been watching you again
I've been staring out
Don't call the cops on me babe (yet)

It's never gonna be the same, I know
It's never gonna be the same
You're never gonna be the same, I know
My only crime is that I cared
Is that I cared
Is that I cared
Is that I cared
