

O

Inner Wave

Guess I might as well go back
Some things better left on track

Oh
And I know just what it is
But I try and hold it in
Something new is on the rise
I might just see it through

When your life is off the trail
There is no one left to fail
I don't wanna just give in no, no, no, no
This could be where I begin

Oh
And I knew just what it is
So I try and hold it in
Something new is on the rise
I might just see it through
See it through

See it through
