Inner Wave

Not on me, not again
You can't tell me who I am
It's alright, it's okay
I won't tell them either way
M says, "Don't you know?
You'd feel better all alone"
Times have changed, can't complain
Here's the fee, time to pay

Nothing's free
Nothing's free

Pushing 80 on the 5
As I try to clear my mind
It's alright, it's okay
I won't tell them anything
I can see in the haze
As she tells me that I've changed
As I stop and I think
All the things they'll take from me

'Cause nothing's free
I don't wanna push it if it's not your time
Nothing's free
I don't wanna push it if it's not your time
Nothing's free

I don't wanna push it if it's not your time
Nothing's free
