

My eyes are filled with anger
Armed with devastated mind
I have the power to erase
Your worthless little lives

Unearthly creature that controls your fate
Into this skinking world I will deliver pain

I breathe like hell
Hiding in the shadows
I am your rules, I am your master

Lawmaker
You, servants bow your heads
Into my majesty
Lawmaker
If you obey I'll let you be
Live your misery

Native of unholy womb
Baptized in lake of tears
I'm the one to make you rot
Evoke your fears
Lord of darkness, father of decay
Don't think or dream
Don't lov'r or feel
On my command you should obey
