

Priest And Reason

Inquisicion

Priest & Reason
Won't come along anymore.

In a battle of controllers
They're pretending
Take our destiny
Invincible container
Of the bleed.

You better stop lying
A spent of the time
Unless for the fight and liberty
It never took the savior
Of the rolling chain.

See the sky, burning night
We could hang and cut now.

Priest & Reason
Won't come along anymore.

In another world controlled
By a bunch of deadly companies
Invincible container of the innocent.

Cold in the heart, burning night
We could hang and cut now.

A shoot in lightning will be
The sunrise wake up
To what's the king
Beware a stand for
A horny moon waiting
To feel my brave
The implications seems to fix it.

And all the angels took her body
Floating under limbo
Her face would be my first of all
The lies upon her wisdom.

In a dorada world it was
Meanwhile pushes away
Enuma Elish higher's tower.

All the potential
Was before the anger
And if you get to the limit
The corporation on this Trouble gets through.

In the way of the centrury flames
Tht's no one had a delight
Never know if I'll find another way
In the searching against to this time.

See the sky, burning night

We could hang and cut now.

Priest & Reason

Won't come along anymore.
