Insane Clown Posse

(Be Safe)

Watch your step. Take it easy
You can't replace what you mean to be Without you, tell me where the fuck I'd be
Out of sight, out of mind

Nah man, that shit ain't even funny
Thoughts of a world without you in it
A motherfucker wouldn't last. We'd crash fast, two minutes
We couldn't even make a sentence, it's true
Not without the A, E, I, O, sometimes Y, and every time, U
Can't spell without the vowel. You the power source
We [?] motherfucker you, [?]
You the lead singer, bread winner, battery pack
It's 'cause of you it don't matter we wack. It's flattery that Made the bitch give it up. Without you, we givin' up
It's you we celebratin' when we livin' it up
Hate to admit it, but alas, wouldn'ta been nothin' but fuckin' drama
If your daddy never nutted up in your mama

It's a lot like you, the fuckin' operator. We going through your wires
We the bolts, you the pliers. Without you though, we both tires
Useless, Joey Ustless and Joe Bruceless
Easy-E without the ruthless, you give two shits
A toothless smile, a toothless crocodile
Let 'em chew you for a while. Who gives a fucking shit right?
I fucking quit. I wouldn't even dunk a fucking hit
Fuck it. Take my wig and split the fuckin' shit
Might even suck a di-
Record stops (What?)
Uh. reverse noise
I would never suck a dick!
But I'll whip out my shit and crush it with a fucking brick
So be safe, okay. Don't even play, no way
I won't even live another day if you go away

Where's Cannibal? Where the fuck is Cannibal?
He ain't with us anymore, snatched up by an animal
And ain't a god damn thing understandable
How the fuck do we continue when we ain't mechanical?
You ain't a pedal boat that float, nope, you rose
So high, we try it, though and die. That's all she wrote, fly
I'm stumped, though, no lie. I come home missi'
My [?] Ford. I cry. They come hopin' shit live
Yet some don't survive. What the fuck we doing wrong?
Pay attention to the god damn song, y'all
Gotta be strong. Don't be wrong. We all belong
We all need to be a long, long, long time
Keep shinin', my nanny, my man
My fam, and we stand to be grand. Take my hand
How come the ice on the nice broke? 'Cause we can
We don't need damn seeds in the sand. We expand
We don't nix ourselves; we fix ourselves
We mix ourselves. Fuck lyin'. I'm riding the giants
And midgets and elves and everyone else who tryin'
Who cried on themselves, and inside they dyin'
And fuck all the words from all the nerds who say we absurd
We ignorin'. You sheep herds so borin'
They keep firin', secretly admirin'
We sirens. They keep on expirin'
We beat cocks to bitches, mountaintops to smidgens
Oceans to Dixie cups. We dig these sluts
And should-be cousins, brothers, mothers, lovers, and others
Only need a little [?] for each other
Get home in one piece, homie. Serenade what you bring in
We sounded like shit without the key that you singin'
Only together we fly. We need the feathers you wingin'
We ain't beamin' and blingin' without the light you bringin'
You bringin'
You bringin'
You bringin'
