The Blasta

Insane Clown Posse

I was maybe 13 They was hurtful and mean Specially this one fucker Kurt Greene Fucked with me in the hallways Always (Abused loser) They would all say I walked in the lunchroom I'm getting punched soon If Kurt Greene sees me here comes doom This time he spit on the back of my head My face turned red as the laughter spread

Daddy has a gun in his closet Way up in a black box It's too bad because he lock it Along with all of his crack rocks (Fuck it)

Ice pick in my hand up early in the AM Kurt's at the bus stop snuck up one plus Stuck him in the temple simple disaster That was the debut of the bully blasta

You fucked with the blasta (Explosions) 'Till he does what he has to You fucked with the blasta You don't know me Till he does what he has to You fucked with the blasta (Explosions) Keep fucking with the blasta You fucked with the blasta You don't know me Keep fucking with the blasta

I was 22 and the army's calling I'm lifeless out here so I'm all in And my drill sergeant is barking orders And I'm sharing my living quarters With a big-time prick from Oklahoma I can't stand him or his aroma Big thick dick jock in his drawers he flexed They all kiss his ass they don't wanna be next

I never thought the blasta would be back But he has to we need that

He pissed in my bed I jumped in laid wet in the laughter Blood pumping He snores like a bear but tonight was nice We all slept like babies with his windpipe slice I did it, with a straight blade razor And my bully blasta behavior

You fucked with the blasta (Explosions) 'Till he does what he has to You fucked with the blasta You don't know me Till he does what he has to You fucked with the blasta (Explosions) Keep fucking with the blasta You fucked with the blasta You don't know me Keep fucking with the blasta

Years past (6x)

I got a family now I put it all behind me My son gets picked on now, and it reminds me Of murder, the bully soon came up missing I spoke to my son I had an intuition "Did you have anything to do with this?" He gave me no answer just a hug and a kiss And said "Don't worry dad everything will be fine Just you pay it no mind, it's all over"

And at work my boss is a bastard He comes to the office halfway plastered Bitchin abusing all the women and testing But we accept it because of the recession

He groped my wife at the office party I stood up for her he swore he'd fire me I threw him off the balcony 13th floor I guess I'm a bully blasta forevermore

You fucked with the blasta (Explosions) 'Till he does what he has to You fucked with the blasta You don't know me Till he does what he has to You fucked with the blasta (Explosions) Keep fucking with the blasta You fucked with the blasta You don't know me Keep fucking with the blasta
