

The Dark

Insane Clown Posse

The darkness will engulf everyone
The darkness and Hell will blend as one
The darkness will bleed out the sun
The darkness is morbidly fun
The darkness will engulf everyone
The darkness and Hell will blend as one
The darkness will bleed out the sun
The darkness is morbidly fun

In the dark, decency don't have to be the rule
In the dark, nobody's watching; you can be a fool
Hang upside down, a gargoyle or a creepy ghoul
Take shit as far as you like; don't have to keep it cool
In the dark, you're not responsible for all that you've done
Generate enough blood to drown the morning sun
There's lots to do to cemeteries, and the morgue is fun
But the dark is everywhere, dead to explore the fun
Nobody has a face. You can be what you want
Are you alive is all that matters. Your heartbeats you flaunt
And the darker the better; the dead are free to haunt
You can hear 'em calling out your name; you see they taunt
Everyone's alone. They savages. They tear at each other
They all share a common goal: they only care that you suffer
In the dark can be thick, suck out your air when you smother
'Til you can't escape the darkness, even under the covers

I hear a *caw*
And a *caw*
With a *caw caw*
I hear a *scream*
And a *caw*
With a *caw, caw*
I hear a *caw*
And a *caw*
With a *caw caw*
I just see heartless darkness, quick to flip you into a carcass
Flip!

Faster than a fire is the smoke when it spread
Do some filthy shit to your bitch or choke her instead
Hear the blade cut through the air and poke in your head
You'll be prayin' for the shit to end, hopin' ya dead
It's black ninjas in the dark. Even your shadows have shadows
Black as oil skeletons, you can hear them bones rattle
Blackness first, the dark see nothing void of tome battles
You can feel the dripping heat, more blood than slaughtered home cattle
The blackness of their eyeballs are bottomless pits
Something's frowning in the darkness, you 'bout to get bit
So much blackness is surrounding, you drown in it quick
Would you rather step in guts or hippopotamus shit?
Black teeth, black eyes, black hair, black skin
Black tongue, black soul, black magic
Your throat we will slash it
Red rum, unholy and tragic
And some come hold the black hatchet
Knock you out cold with a ratchet
They young and old going batshit

Ain't no controlin' the action
Black blood be flowin' and splashin'
Just bein' choked with a passion
Sickness take hold when you catch it
Darkness can't nobody match it
His head explodes when you smash it
Stabbed full of holes and some gashes
But it's much too dark to see black blood all over the mattress
There's a raven in the room, but all we hear is a squawk
Actually, we can't even see. Maybe it's a hawk
I don't know, baby, a crow maybe, or it's a black swan
Under the black sky, black shit all on a black lawn

I hear a *caw*
And a *caw*
With a *caw caw*
I hear a *scream*
And a *caw*
With a *caw, caw*
