

Wretched

Insane Clown Posse

(I'm wretched) A beast not meant for eyes to see
(I'm wretched) Born six hundred sixty-six AD
(I'm wretched) The church I left it smoky, blazed, and charred
(I'm wretched) All them folks cremated, disregard
(I'm wretched) Blood soaked and nude outside I dance and scream
(I'm wretched) Dead body floatin' down the bloody stream
(I'm wretched) Preacher cried, fell on his knees to pray
(I'm wretched) Each eyeball melted, leakin' down his face
I'm lonely but I'm not alone
There's several voices in my dome
And several choices on my own
And severed children in my room
And only when the light is gone
The air is still, the night is calm
No thunderstorm, it can't be warm
Just before dawn, and here they come
I'm here to cease your shining bliss
Deny you of your every wish
If I come close enough but miss
I'll suck you dry of happiness
And snatch you out your magic mist
To shower you in demon piss
Angels are just a serpent's trick
No holiness, no hope exists

I'm wretched, the sickest, infected, the vicious
The deadest, sadistic, the dreaded, malicious

Say a prayer for me, say a prayer for me
Say a prayer for me, say a prayer for me
Say a prayer for me, say a prayer for me
Say a prayer for me, say a prayer for me

(I'm wretched) I've got massive agony to share
(I'm wretched) Screams of suffering I long to hear
(I'm wretched) I leave sunken bags under your eyes
(I'm wretched) I will tell and dispel hopeful lies
(I'm wretched) A mother's shriek when told her son has passed
(I'm wretched) Gets me higher than some nitrous gas
(I'm wretched) Demon souls infect my my heart with hate
I await my final fate, disintegrating in a burning lake
I breathe fear and feed off pain
I live to kill, murder, and maim
Red fire snakes slide through my veins
The Reaper's fist will crush your brains
In ways to kill is how I'm trained
Your life ends quicker than it came
And what's to gain? A heart and brain
A carcass frame, God's darkest game
A body's just a fleshy waste
Decays inside a tomb encased
The only good thing is the taste
I chomp a mouthful of the face
They're slow and quickly caught when chased
And left to waste, life erased
Oceans all dried up in place
The human race, a true disgrace

I'm wretched, the sickest, infected, the vicious
The deadest, sadistic, the dreaded, malicious

Say a prayer for me, say a prayer for me
Say a prayer for me, say a prayer for me
Say a prayer for me, say a prayer for me
Say a prayer for me, say a prayer for me

(I'm wretched) Say a prayer for me
(The sickest) Say a prayer for me
(Infected) Say a prayer for me
(The vicious) Say a prayer for me
(The deadest) Say a prayer for me
(Sadistic) Say a prayer for me
(The dreaded) Say a prayer for me
(Malicious) Say a prayer for me
