

Deplorable Stench Reeking of Treacherous Deceit

Insidious Decrepancy

Deviance
Grows like a tumor in my brain
Blind revenge
Never ending torment to my pain
Human plague
Virus overtaking innocence
Putrid stench
Of self-indulgent hypocrites
Primal instinct takes control
In my hands your life I held
Guilty of deceit and lies
Never will I sympathize
Judgement calls you can't escape
I sentence you to endless pain
Faceless
All of them the same
Headless
Traacherously maimed
Appetizing carcass lay
At arms length I stand and gaze
Transfixed on the rotting cunt
Work of art I've made
Masterpiece
Reeking of deceit
Tempting me
To ejaculate
Cold and swift
Judgment passes down
Inside out
Inhumane reprisal
Deceptive tendencies
Dormant in the subconscious
Must destroy this disease
Through horrific butchery
