

Disconnected

Insolence

You take what you want
But it's not enough
You can't take my pride
Your secrets exposed

Damage I do damage
I'm a savage
You get no passes
This shit's so tragic
I'll cause some havoc
I am my own worst enemy
Intertwined in the belly of the beast
I can't find no peace in a world where I can't be free

You're distracted by screens
Your mind's quarantined
It's time to break free
You're distracted by screens
Your mind's quarantined
It's time to break free

There's no where to hide
Your will, you impose
This time you will lose
Pay the price, you use

Oppression, don't learn no lessons
I'm acting reckless
Infected, I am the virus
We are the righteous
So much of this hate inside
Gotta take the pain away
I can't go on living in Babylon's evil rat race

You're distracted by screens

Your mind's quarantined
It's time to break free
You're distracted by screens
Your mind's quarantined
It's time to break free

Sittin' there immobile
Lack of interaction
Psychosocial leads to inaction
Do you feel social, media distraction
Rise up vocal driven to reaction
Do you feel vocal? Make yourself heard
Rise up hopeful, time to converge
Do you feel social, media distraction
Rise up vocal driven to reaction...!
Distraction...!
You're Disconnected!

You're distracted by screens

It's time to break free
You're distracted by screens
It's time to break free

(Break)

You're distracted by screens
It's time to break free
You're distracted by screens
