

Human Shield

Inspirational Carpets

You've always been my human shield
Protecting me, making me feel
And nothing can go wrong
When all the hope has gone

You've always been my human shield
When night fall and day breaks
You pick up the pieces and keep them safe

In the haze of the morning sun
You tie the threads when they come undone
From chaos you bring calm
You've always kept me safe from harm

You've always been my human shield
When night fall and day breaks
You pick up the pieces and keep them safe

You've always been my human shield
Protecting me, making me feel
And nothing can go wrong
When all the hope has gone

You've always been my human shield
When night fall and day breaks
You pick up the pieces and keep them safe

When night fall and day breaks
You pick up the pieces and keep them safe

When night fall and day breaks
You pick up the pieces and keep them safe

When night fall and day breaks
You pick up the pieces and keep them safe

When night fall and day breaks
You pick up the pieces and keep them safe
