I'll Keep It In Mind

Inspiral Carpets

Dreams of what I'd thought I'd lost return like stray animals
Glimpses of what never was twist like flames
Stories that I've been told, a world I've left behind
Memories of her childhood I know she will never find

I'll keep it in mind
I'll keep it in mind

Words return to mock her in her fantasies and doubt
She'll forget the anger, but a fire burns inside

You took every tablet, every one you swallowed down
Now you broke the habit, no one wants to hang around

I'll keep it in mind
I'll keep it in mind

Strange, you're stealin' all my dreams
So strange, you're stealin' all my dreams

I'll keep it in mind
I'll keep it in mind
I'll keep it in mind
I'll keep it in mind
