

Mirror in Reverse

Integrity

time is mans illusion
circling the world in blackened whispers blind backward conception perceives the fall of our endless dream unsealed seven
awaken heavens deceit
let loose the devils and demons

and pray for your final release cease to be invoke the balance
...conjured reality
light and darkness
unite & transcend forgotten gods invoke the end
fatal descent
resides inside
deluded world pretend our lies a mirror unclear
eternal now

show the silver beneath the gown and we stand before the glass reflecting another life lining reality- within the dreams we see casting out
what we rehearsed
a universe
within the mirror in reverse
time is mans illusion
blind
backward regression
reveals the fall of our hopeless dream unsealed seven

betray heavens conceit
and pray for their final release
and we stand before the glass reflecting another life lining reality- within the dreams we see
casting out
a
universe
within
the mirror in reverse
circling the world in blackened whispers blind backward deception relieves the call of our

soundless screams
imprison heavens belief let loose the devils and demons
and pray for our final
release
