Wailing Moon

Inter Arma

The path that I roam
Ends in a maze of stars
Where I'll offer myself
To the vastness of space and time

It's where I'll search for the wailing moon
Who guards the key to my soul
Whose voice echoes through all eternity

Oh my solemn beacon
Where do you hide?
I seek your steadfast guide
I seek your truth

If I surrender to the universe
In your eyes
Will you tell me who you mourn?
My wailing moon

As she draws me towards
Her ghostly orb
The world I once knew
Becomes an arcane vision

Oh my solemn beacon
Where have you been?
Your light is my paramount desire
Your light is truth

I will raise my hands
To the cosmic night

I will deliver myself
To her radiant aura

If I surrender to the universe
In your eyes
Will you tell me who you mourn?
My wailing moon

I can once again breathe
I can once again feel
The spectres of the vast cosmos
Have delivered me to her splendor

I have surrendered to the universe
In your eyes
Will you tell me who you mourn?
My wailing moon
