

All At Once

Interpol

Slow day and I go straight for your heart
You say, "Alright, big deal, so what?"
My kind of heroes are weak
Restless, alone, on the street
No shame, it's a real drain on your heart
I know how you feel

"Release me now", she said
We're always neverending
It's just a process that took your faith
All at once
We had time enough to reach inside
And nobody changed
And no reply
We're falling down
All at once

Lately, I'm always awake
Shit, I got no friends
To meet today
Go swing your heels from the dark
Your ghost in your wheels
No shame, it's a real drain on your heart
You say, "Alright, big deal, so what?"

"Release me now", she said
We're always neverending
It's just the prospects that took your blanks
All at once
We're having time enough to reach inside
And nobody changed
And no reply
We're breaking down
All at once
All at once

We felt it time enough
To reach inside
And nobody wins
So dignified could throw us down
All at once
Answer, answer, answer
All at once
