

The Lighthouse

Interpol

This place is set to break
It's just as safe for me outside tonight

And I want that
I face the storm's appetite
From the lighthouse

And I want that
I face the storm and the night
Whole

What do the waves have to say?
What do the waves have to say now now?
Slow now
I let the waves have their way now now
Slow
I let the waves have their day

Here I've been living unloosened from sin
Upward and outward
Begin, begin

Here I've been loosened, unliving within
Inwardly urgent
I'm sinking again
