

Open a Book

Into It. Over It.

When was the last time
I've had my nose in a book?
When was the last time?
When was the last time
I've been as well read as I claim to be?
Putting down every face I see when every face I see knows more than me

How soon is too soon to start making plans?
(How soon is too soon to start making plans?)
Not soon enough to start taking a stand
Because it's unclear
How long we'll be standing here
Yeah, it's unclear

When was the last time
That we've opened a book?
When was the last time?
A broken spine - well, I get it
Take your time - 'cause I've read it
Our schedule's not drawn in a picture perfect outline

How soon is too soon to start making plans?
(How soon is too soon to start making plans?)
Not soon enough to start taking a stand
Because it's unclear
How long we'll be standing here
Yeah, it's unclear
Yeah

When was the last time
I've opened a book?
When was the last time?
