

Raw Bar OBX 2002

Into It. Over It.

Hey, I've got bigger fish to fry
They're swordfish sized
They're swimming small circles
And asking for a break

Hey, I've got bigger fish to fry
So don't hold out for me to try
And find the time
I don't care if you can't understand the why's

Hey, I've got bigger fish to fry
They're swordfish sized
Hey, I've got bigger fish to fry
They're swordfish sized

Working on lots of things, all tucked away
Hiding from my phone
I never thought I'd quit complaining
I thought I had time to be alone
But I've got all these fish to fry
I just need a little time

Working on lots of things, all tucked away
Hiding from my phone
I never thought I'd quit complaining
I thought I had time to be alone
But I've got all these fish to fry
I just need a little time

Working on lots of things, all tucked away
Hiding from my phone
I never thought I'd quit complaining
I thought I had time to be alone
But I've got all these fish to fry
I just need a little time
