

Have you forgotten how to feel
As I'm bleeding out for you?
Vision's blurring
Failing to see
Awaiting breath to leave

Ascend to fall

Hell will freeze over
You splinter in the blue night
Let's wait and see, under clouds
Together we are spinning, alive

Asleep beside me, dreaming far from home
Alone in pain

You'll stay in time
Away from me and all whats left
Sleeping stuck yet stray
Awaiting wind to leave

Hell won't freeze over
You splinter in the blue night
Lets wait and see, under clouds
Together we are spinning, alive
(We are spinning, alive)

I know it's a fire
Searing through your cold veins
It's a fire
To spread unsound
It takes the world

Hell won't freeze over
You splinter in the blue night
Lets wait and see, under clouds
Together we are spinning, alive
