

Shade Astray

Invent, Animate

Cursed, from day to day it slips
We guess in gray to fill the moment
To be lost in fiction
Drift on no further
It's falsely a friend
Further
Salvation could be mischief
We are

Searching for a way to stay
It's torn in two, we're forced to wait

Earth, can you feel me
As the sun melts me deeper into your soil
Buried in the whisper
Our hearts getting sicker
Make your move to let go
Fade with me

Won't you fade, fade with me
Cause you're all, all I see
Why'd you stay, stay away
As it's far away from me

Drift on no further
Strangle the will within your heart
Craving to be broken down instead of healing in the far

All is gone for you
Falling hard into a space I left you in
As we were almost close
But never felt exposed
And it never left us ripped away
Inside a lucid dream

Won't you fade, fade with me
Cause you're all, all I see
Why'd you stay, stay away
As it's far away from me

I can barely feel your skin on mine
You reach through the branches of monoliths
Growing ever old and green
Calling louder in regret
Lost souls stubborn and desperate to die

Growing ever old and green

I'm starting to find my world again
While trying to shed my fears
We suffer through our own bitterness
It swallows us as we fall

Safely stay inside the paradise
Safely stay inside the paradise

Won't you fade, fade with me

Cause you're all, all I see
