

I had to fall to find my way to the surface
And now I'm asking myself "Was it worth it?" (No)
Is this the end of the road?
Cause I can't stomach the taste of letting go

Was it worth it?
Oh God, please tell me it's worth it
I've bled my fingers right down to the bone

So fucking let it burn
Let it burn
Let's get a little higher
To watch the world on fire
So let it burn
Let it burn
You're preaching to the choir
No smoke without a fire
So let it burn

I'm burning bridges, fuck a curtain call
It means nothing at all
And just for the record
I gave up everything

I'm living life like a landmine (Landmine)
God only knows, it's a matter of time
It's outta sight, I'm out my God damn mind

So fucking let it burn
Let it burn
Let's get a little higher
To watch the world on fire
So let it burn
Let it burn
You're preaching to the choir
No smoke without a fire
So fucking let it burn

We're all just flesh and dirt
So what's the purpose, what's it worth?
We're all just flesh and dirt
So what's the purpose, what's it worth?

So tell me, how did it come to this?
And in the end, we're just dirt and bone
Finding worth in a life on loan
So tell me, how did it get to this?
Annihilist
Another cut, another scar
So damn close, yet so fucking far
So tell me, how did it get to this?
Annihilist

Let it burn
Let's get a little higher
To watch the world on fire
So let it burn

Let it burn
You're preaching to the choir
No smoke without a fire
So fucking let it burn

Let's get a little higher
To watch the world on fire
So let it burn
Let it burn
You're preaching to the choir
No smoke without a fire
So fucking let it burn
