

Faith In 1984

InVisions

Is there unity ahead or is this ship just sinkin'?
So many voices in my head, just tell me what you're thinkin'

I know you want me to stay and I hate leaving this way
I can't help thinking that our time is fading
And with you so far away, I can't adjust to the pain
I'm holding tight, so don't you

Don't let go, don't give in
It won't be long before I'm coming home so
Don't let go, don't give in
With every second I am getting closer

Don't give up on me
I'm here, I'm trying
Close your eyes and see
I'm there beside you

With everyday that passes by I start to question why
This is the place I wanna be if you can't be here with me?

I know you want me to stay and I hate leaving this way
I can't help thinking that our time is fading
And with you so far away, I can't adjust to the pain
I'm holding tight, so don't you

Don't let go, don't give in
It won't be long 'til I'm coming home so
Don't let go, don't give in
With every second I am getting closer

Don't give up on me
I'm here, I'm trying
Close your eyes and see
I'm there beside you

(Don't you)
Whoa
Whoa
I'm here, I'm trying
I swear I'm holding on, it's killin' me
I'm here, I'm trying
Don't let go

Don't give up on me
I'm here, I'm trying
Close your eyes and see
I'm there beside you

Don't give up on me
I'm here, I'm trying
Close your eyes and see
I'm there beside you

Don't give up on me
I'm here, I'm trying
Close your eyes and see

I'm there beside you

(Don't you)
