

Gold Blooded

InVisions

I'll rack 'em up and knock 'em down for free
Give you another fucking reason to say you hate me

I've heard it all before, so let the river run red
Dig graves for my demons and leave me for dead
Your hopeless, negativity it satisfies my sanity
And if I gave a fuck I wouldn't put my life on the line
Judge this, eat dick
I've been doing just fine without you
Without you

Place your bets, mother fuckers dealing empty threats
Represent, gold blooded till the end

If you bury my name then who's left to blame?
Just tear my soul apart, expose my blackened heart
Nothing lost, nothing gained you're living in vain
Corrupt my sanity, lay bare the worst in me

You're in denial, paid to play gatekeeper
But we're the same in the eyes of the reaper
Hatred for hire
So fucking sick and tired
You mother fuckers gonna see me now
You write us off but now your whole team down
Spineless, say it to my face
So leave me out, your body count

If you bury my name then who's left to blame?
Just tear my soul apart, expose my blackened heart
Nothing lost, nothing gained you're living in vain
Corrupt my sanity, lay bare the worst in me

The first to fall always the last one out the gate
I've seen you slacking and jacking my shit like damn
Give me a break
Talk shit, you ain't even in my lane
Mother fucker gonna end up a bloodstain

Do your worst, drag my name through the dirt
It's like you're begging for a reason
Praying that you get hurt
Do your worst cause it's hard to brag
When you're breathing through a body bag

If you bury my name then who's left to blame?
Just tear my soul apart, expose my blackened heart
Nothing lost, nothing gained you're living in vain
Corrupt my sanity, lay bare the worst in me

Lay bare the worst in me
