

Memoriam

InVisions

So tell me how can you justify the lies you swallow?
Living in fear, the end is near, knowing the time is borrowed
No hesitation, realisation, you've got so much to lose
The game is up, bitch you're old fucking news

It's like you think that I was born yesterday
And that I haven't learnt from my mistakes
Take the memories, they're yours to keep
'Cause looking back I hope you're losing sleep

I fucking wish I was there to see the look on your face
Watching your world fall apart, no sign of saving grace
The scars run deep, now start to surface and crack
You said you wanted my heart but now I'm taking it back

It's like you think that I was born yesterday
And that I haven't learnt from my mistakes
Take the memories, they're yours to keep
'Cause looking back I hope you're losing sleep

So convoluted, reality seems to never sink in
An avalanche outset above, descent is quickening
You closed your mind, blocked out the noise 'cause you can't handle the truth
If words are weapons I am motherfucking bulletproof

Never again will I fall
For something so damn crazy
Giving it up, take it all
'Cause your shit still can't phase me
Bitch just face it, you never can erase it
You're just a mistake, it ain't worth me making
Bitch don't fake it better to embrace it
Can't escape it

It's like you think that I was born yesterday
And that I haven't learnt from my mistakes (Mistakes)
Take the memories, they're yours to keep
Cause looking back I hope you're losing sleep
It's like you think that I was born yesterday
And that I haven't learnt from my mistakes (Mistakes)
Take the memories, they're yours to keep
'Cause looking back I hope you're losing sleep
I hope you're losing sleep
I hope you're losing sleep
