

Purge

InVisions

Reckless, and my whole vision was clear
Don't mean to distress but there ain't no fun without fear
You better run and hide cause I'm a God damn criminal Locked and loaded, got no motive, point blank visual

Let me take you there
Let me take you there
As I search for absolution
Broke beyond repair
Let me take you there

I'm not looking for an easy way out
From all that I've become
It seem's I've traded my soul
So I've only just begun
I just can't wait for the night to come

Give me something
Just give me something
Lord up above I exist for nothing
Until you do decide I'll stay a fucking animal
Cause when I'm out of bullets I'm a mother fucking cannibal
Let me take you there
Let me take you there
As I search for absolution
Broke beyond Repair
Let me take you there

I'm not looking for an easy way out
From all that I've become
It seem's I've traded my soul
So I've only just begun
I just can't wait for the night to come

Give me something
Just give me something
Lord up above I exist for nothing

I'm not looking for an easy way out
From all that I've become
It seem's I've traded my soul
So I've only just begun
I just can't wait for the night to come

I'm not looking for an easy way out
From all that I've become
It seem's I've traded my soul
So I've only just begun
I just can't wait for the night to come
Give me something
